

OTTAWA-CARLETON
DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

Facebook Ate My Daughter... and My Son Won't Stop Playing Call of Duty

A free information session for parents with with Dr. Leonard Sax

Dr. Sax will answer the questions that parents of teens are asking today. Should I be my child's Facebook friend? How much time spent playing video games is too much? What are the effects of growing up in virtual worlds?

Date: Thursday, February 16, 2012

Time: 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Location: Woodroffe High School, Auditorium
2410 Georgina Drive, Ottawa

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. with light refreshments.
Seating will be on a first-come first-served basis.

Dr. Leonard Sax is a leading expert on the role that gender plays in child development and education. He is the Founder of the Montgomery Center for research in Child and Adolescent Development.

He currently works with schools offering insight into the main differences between teaching boys and girls.

Hosted by the Ottawa-Carleton District School Board's Parent Involvement Committee with grant funding from the Ontario Ministry of Education.

Ottawa-Carleton District School Board

133 Greenbank Road • Ottawa, ON K2H 6L3 • 613-721-1820

Fax 613-820-6968 • Website: www.ocdsb.ca

