Lunchtime Drumming at Elmdale Public School

Winter 2012

Extra Curricular Creative Arts Program, Continuing Education, OCDSB

Lunchtime Drumming for Grades 1-3 and Grades 4-6 at Elmdale Public School.

The Extra Curricular Creative Arts Program in Continuing Education, OCDSB is excited to offer a series of lunchtime Drumming workshops with Baobab Community at Elmdale PS.

Description Students will participate in a six week series of African drumming workshops, enhanced with some singing, movement and game songs based on the traditional music of Ghana, West Africa. African drumming is a wonderful way to develop better listening skills, focus and to build community. Emphasis is on personal expression, playfulness and a social atmosphere! Drums are provided by Baobab for weekly lunchtime drumming sessions. Classes taught by Kathy Armstrong and Julia Walmsley of Baobab Community www.baobabtree.org NOTE: Class size minimum 20; class size maximum 25. Registrations are accepted on a first-come-first served basis.

A note about wait-lists and prior commitments. Wait lists will be maintained in the event classes become full, and to ensure those who are unable to participate in this session due to prior activity commitments are offered the opportunity for possible future sessions of Drumming at Elmdale.

Fee $51 Fee payment is required at the time of registration. Fee includes supplied drums.

Schedule All sessions take place 12:05-12:45pm in the Library. See days/dates/grades below.
